Species 4: FIG. 3C is an embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 3A, wherein the main speaker (313) is not installed in the earphone.

Species 5: FIG. 4 is a partial sectional diagram of an earphone, wherein the sound field generated by the sub-speakers inside a composite room (330) can be adjusted by relocating the position of the sub-speaker.

Species 6: FIG. 4A is an embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 4, wherein more sets of composite room (330a, 330b) can be added into the earphone.

Species 7: FIG. 4B is another embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 4, wherein the main speaker (313) is not installed in the earphone.

Art Unit: 2615

Species 8: FIG. 4C is an embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 4A, wherein the main speaker (313) is not installed in the earphone.

Species 9: FIG. 5A is an embodiment of an earphone, wherein the sub-rooms (331, 333) are formed with the composite chambers (317b, 317c).

Species 7: FIGs. 5B and 5D are the other embodiments of the present invention as shown in figure 5A, wherein the length of the sub-room (331) of the speaker (315b) formed by the chamber (317b) is intentionally extended.

Species 10: FIG. 5C is another embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 5A, wherein the structure for forming the composite chambers (317b, 317c) can have a predetermined curve angle.

Species 11: FIG. 6 is an embodiment of the earphone 600 that has different designs for the chamber (317b, 317c).

Species 12: FIG. 6A is another embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 6, wherein the length of the sub-room (331) of the speaker (315b) formed by chamber (317b) is extended intentionally.

Art Unit: 2615

Species 13: FIG. 7 is a partial sectional diagram of an earphone 700 according to another embodiment of the present invention, wherein the opening direction of the chambers (317b, 317c) for forming the sub-rooms (331, 333) can be adjusted.

Species 14: FIG. 7A is an another embodiment of the present invention as shown in figure 7, wherein the structure for forming the chambers (317b, 317c) can have a predetermined curve angle.

The species are independent or distinct because they are directed to different embodiments.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no generic claim.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 2615

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to HUYEN D. LE whose telephone number is (571) 272-7502. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30AM-6:00PM.
